

I respectfully submit the following comments: Automatic upgrades tend to denigrate the testing process. I have been told that the novice and advanced classes were very close to the new classes, if so, 20 min at a VE test session will upgrade to general and extra classes and assure that the applicant understands the information of that grade. 20 years time in grade has no meaning regarding the technical information required to be a general or extra.